HOW IT WORKS?

The AFT Healing Therapy needs the concentration of the individual, his or her intention to heal, attitude to actively participate in the healing process, AFT Quantum Tools strategically placed, and someone with passion and interest to facilitate. All these conditions can bring about amazing healing results!

AFT Quantum Entrained Disc is an effective tool for healing because of the principles of resonance and entrainment. In physics, the "entrainment" theory is a process where two vibrating objects, vibrating at different speeds, start to vibrate at the same speed when energy is transferred between the two objects. The AFT Quantum Healing Disc and the Orgonite Cone Antenna are ENERGIZED to resonate at Zero Point Energy.

When one sets an intention to heal and actively participates in the healing, the intention will fall from the Beta state (our conscious state) into the Theta state (4-8hz), which is the deep meditative state of unconsciousness.

With the use of AFT products strategically placed, coupled with full participation of the individual and facilitated by a set of multi-dimensional healing modalities, healing and rejuvenation inevitably take place.

WHY AFT QUANTUM HEALING?

Most of us live a highly stressful life, exposed to excessive pollution and an unhealthy lifestyle that abuses our energetic system to a certain extent. Just like regular exercises and spa treatments are recommended for healthy living, regular AFT Quantum Healing sessions, can cleanse, balance, charge and rejuvenate our complete energetic system.
