Titanium Energy Pendant

Zero Point Energy Sourcing and Balancing Pendant

HEALING
ENERGY BALANCE
ENERGIZING

We are a "bundle" of condensed energy resonating at a very special personal vibration. Everything in and around us is Energy. Every person has a unique energy system. Our thoughts we have, sounds we make, emotions we experience are all but ENERGY in motion.

Our body is surrounded by an invisible field called the Bio-Energy Field which is commonly known as the "aura". The Bio-Energy Field supports the entire functionality of the body. The energetic aspects of the structure and function of the body along with all the feelings that we experience such as thoughts, states of consciousness, physical sensations and much more are contained and managed within the Bio-Energy Field.

Unfortunately for us, our busy lives today are laden with stress, lethargy and pollution of the air, water, lifestyle and even environment. The increased exposure to electrical and artificial environments such as our smart phones, wifi, air-conditioning, television, laptops and tablets etc shows that we are constantly exposed to electromagnetic fields (Esmog), oxidative stress and negative frequencies that upset the natural energy balance within us. These factors upset our natural rhythm and weaken our Bio-Field leading to energy deficiency, energy blockages, and imbalance in our body which causes various discomfort, poor performance and other disorders.

The AMPendant Universe has been energized to resonate at Zero Point Field resonance. When these products come in contact Bio-Field, our innate intelligence is able to detect the universal source of resonance and entrain to use the resonance of the products to "act" as a bridge or as an antenna to source the Universal Life Force Energy from the environment. It's like being in a room and NOT hearing any sound, but get a radio and start tuning the channels; now you can hear hundreds of radio channels which you couldn't hear without the radio.

With the abundance of life force energy from the environment, the Bio-Field is able to clear its distortions and amplify the body's ability to heal itself.

Wearing the AMPendants daily not only strengthen our Bio-Field, but also our mental, emotional and physical quantum, thereby bringing our body to equilibrium, thus relieving us of our health related issues. As it reorganizes our bio-energetic field, our body cells will receive and resonate with the zero-point energy from the pendant and channel it to the areas where it is most needed. When imbalances are cleared and energy is realigned, our body returns equilibrium.

Pendant After Energized AFT

The importance of wearing the AMPendant is because it synchronizes the Energetic Vibrations with the Heart Chakra, which is aligned with the Thymus Gland. The thymus gland builds resistances for combating diseases and helps in physical development. It plays an important role in the functioning of the immune system.

The AMPendant should be worn in a manner where the Pendant rest on the top of the Heart Chakra. This position is known as "Assemblage Point" of the energy vortex. This allows the expansion and strengthening of our Bio-Field and helps us stay "grounded". In this position, the AMPendant maintains the optimum condition of the Heart Chakra, which in-turn supports the Thymus Gland's optimum function.

The AMPendants are manufactured and ENERGIZED with AMized Fusion Technology™ (AFT™), a proprietary Quantum Technology to resonate at Zero Point Field. This proprietary process includes the AMPendant going through a 21 day "charging" process in our very own vacuum chamber.

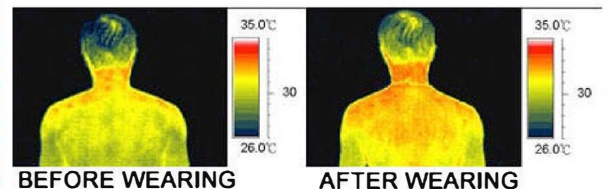

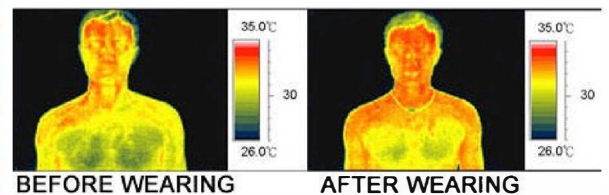

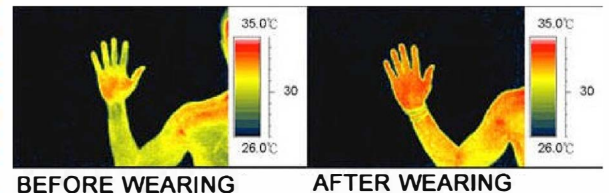

The AMPendant is encapsulated with over 14 different natural elements, like minerals, crystals, gold, copper, silver and many more. When these natural elements are energized with our Quantum Resonance Chamber, the AMPendants show a direct coherent effect on our energetic system and helps in healing, balancing and rejuvenation.
