Natural Holistic Healing Quantum Resonance Tool

BUNDLE OF CONDENSED ENERGY

All living things are constituted with the bundle of condensed energy variously referred as Chi (China), Ki ((Japan), Manna (Polynesia), Prana (India) and Ruach (Hebrew) and Thaqah in Islamic Countries.

If you break down a body, you get limbs, which when broken down, you get organs, and that when broken down you get tissues, followed by cells, and when you break the cells, you get molecules, and when you break down a molecule you get atoms, which consists of electrons, protons and neutrons. Hence the complete functionality of the body is depended on the basic foundational block called as 'cell' and 'energy' in these cells.

CAUSES OF ENERGY DEFICIENCY

The subtle energy that powers every bit of our cells determines our overall health and vitality. Due to our current lifestyle and environment, we are in an energy deficiency (more out than in), where everything from our metabolism, to hormonal balance, to our temperament, are impacted. This further causes energetic imbalances, blockages, depletions and distortions, that when not cleansed or balanced, results in low energy, fatigue, discomfort, and even disorders.

Our body is the most complex and advanced bioengineering creation far more powerful than any supercomputer developed with the extraordinary intelligence and ability to heal. Given the right energetic, emotional, nutritional, and spiritual environments, one can achieve the natural state of the body's Homeostasis.

CAUSES OF ENERGY DEFICIENCY / BLOCKAGES / IMBALANCES

THE AFT AMWAND

The AMwand is a quantum resonance energy balancing multi-purpose tool, made up of a special combination of 13 to 14 granulated minerals and crystals, energized using our proprietary technology called: AMized Fusion Technology™ to resonate at Zero Point Field. These monatomic crystals and minerals are encapsulated in a stainless steel pen-sized casing and "vacuum charged" to resonate at Zero Point Field.

"Wanding" is pointing the AMwand Tip to an Energy centre (Chakra) or a concerned area and rotating in a rhythmic clockwise circular motion for a number of times (9, 18, 36 counts). It is best recommended where the person who being "wanded" sits or lays comfortably with eyes closed and focused on his/her breathing. Wanding is an active process to create an energy vortex flow at the subtle energy level.

HOW IT WORKS?

This natural life force energy resonance helps any living entity's bio-field to cleanse, balance and rejuvenate, as our Bio-field's innate intelligence is able to detect the Universal Life Force Energy and use the resonance of the AMwand to "act" as a bridge or as an antenna to source the Universal Life Force Energy from the environment.

With this sourced Energy from the environment, the Bio-Field is able to clear & balance energy blockages and align our physical, mental and emotional states, bringing about the homeostasis (an optimized, balanced state of the human body).

AMIZED FUSION TECHNOLOGY™

AMized Fusion Technology™ is our proprietary quantum resonance technology process to energize the products to resonate at Zero Point Field or otherwise known as Life Force Energy.

In AMized Fusion Technology™ process, only organic products or natural elements are used. Ingredients are cleansed from any negative contaminants and then charged in the vacuum chamber for over 21 days. The natural life force resonance is amplified when charged within the specialized AFT vacuum chamber.

3 METHODS OF HEALING WITH AMWAND

AMwanding: – pointing the AMwand as close to the person, animal, food, plant, or place, and rotating it clockwise

Acupressure at meridian points and Chakra points using the Tip of the AMwand

EFT Tapping: using the AMwand Tip and tapping slightly on certain points on our body to release and balance energy.
